> FLOUR .- I ners is nothing new to notice in the market for this article during the past week .-There is a fall stock of all grades Northern and Western brands in the hands of dealers, and only a moderate enquiry from the trade. We refer our table for prices at which sales are being made

GRAIN. - The market for Conn continues to ule steady and firm, and prices are about the same as last quoted. Recent arrivals have somewhat replanished the market, and at present here is a fair stock in dealers' hands. The receipts for the week are about 25,000 bushels, all which has gone into store. We have no carg sales to repor', and therefore quote nominally at 95 cents. From store sales are being made in lots as wanted at $1 for yellow, and $1 050 $1 10 for white, sacks included. -- OATS-Are This complaint, besides being dangerous in in light supply, and there is a moderate de mand. Wes ern is in good supply, and the demand is mainly for small lots. We quote ea es from store as follows : smoked, 839 cent for shoulders, 101@11 cents for eides, and 16@18 cents for hams; dry salted, 7108 cents for shoulders, and 910101 cents # lb for sides. LARD.—Northern is in very fair stock, and we quote only a light business doing from store at North Carolina is scarce. and would sell at 16 cents. - Ponk - Northern is in moderate stock, and there is only a retail business doing. See table for store rates. FALT .- The market is moderately supplied and demand light. We quote small lots from store at $1 30@$1 35 for American, and $1 45@ $1 50 @ sack for Liverpool ground Received coastwies during the week about 5,000 sacks, an of which have gone into store. FHINGLES. - Little or no demand for shipment, and the market rules dull. We quote small sales at $2 50@$3 for Common, and $4 50@16 B M for Contract. TIMBER -Owing to the low stage of the water ourses there have been no receipts by river during the week, and the arrivals have been confined to small parcels per railroad, which have sold at figures ranging from $12 to $15 %? M. There is a fair enquiry from millers for the better qualities, which find ready sale, but for interior and common the mark t rules dull. Wood-Is arriving slowly, and sells by th moat load at $2 75 to 33 for pine and ash, and $3 25@$3 50 B cord for oak. Fraights.—We have nothing new to report in the market to coastwise ports. Produce coming in slowly, and but little offering ship ment, being barely adequate for the vestors now op. We refer to table for last rates paid.
